D65 Recognized for Food Bank service

FIGHTING HUNGER - District 65 was recognized in April at the Food Bank's first annual Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon for its volunteer service. Kiana Price, left, Volunteer Action chair, and Mary Johnson, right, Policy Platform chair, accept a certificate from a representative of the Greenville Branch of the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina. The Food Bank serves 10 counties in eastern North Carolina, where more than 145,000 people live in food insecure households. In the photos at right, D65 spent an afternoon in March at the Food Bank bagging potatoes for distribution.
