

SEANC Chairperson of the Year Winner – Characteristics

Past winners of the Chairperson of the Year Award have:

- Been longtime active members
- Been longtime state employees
- Served multiple terms as district chairperson
- Served as multiple district committee chairpersons in the past
- Served as a convention delegate
- When not serving as district chairperson, willing to help others
- Served as Area EMPAC Chairperson and works to schedule meetings and prepare candidate surveys
- Been described as:
 - “A leader who is honest and fair and one members enjoy working with.”
 - “Hard-working and extremely SEANC-knowledgeable and seen as a valuable SEANC asset by others not just in the district but across the state.”
 - “Always a front-line EMPAC supporter.”
 - “Stays abreast of current legislative issues and lets state employees and district board members know when and how they need to communicate with their legislators.”
 - “Spends many long hours to keep delegates advised of SEANC objectives and goals and makes thorough plans for convention.”
 - “Devoted and dedicated to SEANC.”
 - “An active member of EMPAC, ensuring that district membership is fairly represented and encourages members to support local endorsed candidates.”
 - Focused on growing membership
 - Focused on district fundraising
- Complied with the SEANC bylaws and operations manual, explained it in-depth to district committee chairpersons, used it as basis to run district meetings.
- Served in other civic and community organizations.