Board holds retreat for membership training

The District 65 Executive Board traveled to New Bern on July 14 for a leadership retreat and membership training. D65's regular monthly meeting was held on Friday night. On Saturday, Chairwoman Alicia Simpson went over the duties of each officer and committee chair. Celia Wilson, SEANC member relations rep, presented Membership 101, giving tips on how to recruit new members. The session ended with participants showing what they had learned by presenting skits on recruiting new members. Stanley Drewery, SEANC president, and Benny Brigman, member relations rep, also participated.
